April 2025

Welcome to the Extreme Cowboy Association

This is the latest issue of your monthly newsletter, The Brave Horse.

You will receive it each month electronically around the middle of the month. The Brave Horse will be full of interesting stories, EXCA event results, point standings, human interest stories about EXCA members and Tips and Tales from our founder, Craig Cameron. We encourage you to communicate your suggestions for stories and ideas that will make The Brave Horse fun, better and more informative. The Brave Horse: the best newsletter in the equine world.

Please forward your ideas and suggestions to Tracy Pinson at TLPinson@aol.com

Exciting NEWS

We're proud to announce our partnership with EquiStat, a revolutionary tool for tracking performance horse earnings utilized within disciplines across the board.

This collaboration will foster growth within the sport by recognizing money earned and highlight EXCA's talented equine athletes.

More information regarding this partnership to come! Individual club facilitators will receive an email this week with all necessary information regarding documenting and submitting earnings post races.

Dear Extreme Cowboy Racer,

This year, from July 4 to 6, 2025, our club is organizing the EXCA European Championship. This championship will take place at the well-known Reining Center Meertenhof in Grathem (Netherlands). This venue is one of the largest and most beautiful competition venues in Europe.

We also have the pleasure to welcome Cole Cameron. He will not only give a clinic, but also judge the competition.

Would you like more information? Don't hesitate to send us an email or take a look at our website and/or Facebook page!

Member Spotlight - Chuck Ornstein

Submitted by Lynne Seawright

Chuck Ornstein is an amazing man. He is definitely the most interesting, inspiring and generous horseman I know.

He has been a horseman most of his life and participated in many riding disciplines and facets of the equine world. He currently owns a beautiful ranch and boarding facility in Collingwood, Ontario, Canada. He and his late wife Linda built the ranch for their family (2 daughters) and their quarter horses. His daughters have grown up with horses and have passed the passion to many of his grandchildren. It is always a fun day at the barn when the grandchildren come to visit.

Chuck is generous with his facilities and his horses. He often hosts pony and horse club outings for young horse lovers. When the attendees show up without a horse to ride, he will saddle up one of his horses so everyone gets to ride. The first time I met him, he let me ride one of his horses and told me to "comeback whenever I wanted to ride". He didn't know that I would be back almost every day and it would be the start of a long enduring friendship.

Chuck was involved in the origination of the Ontario Extreme Cowboy Association. He served on the board for several years, offered his ranch for events and is still an EXCA certified judge. He is often asked to judge EXCA events all over Ontario because of his consistent, fair judging. It's not unusual to see Chuck fill his RV and attach the horse trailer to drive 4 or 5 hours to judge an event for the weekend.

Every summer, hay season arrives with new challenges. The hay fields on his ranch will produce enough hay to feed all the horses, if the weather and machinery cooperates. It usually means 3 to 4 days of long hours on the tractor to take advantage of the right hay conditions. Then the hay grows back and he does it again, usually 3 times per summer. All the horses appreciate the quality of his hay.

When Chuck isn't in the saddle or on the tractor, he isn't sitting still. He is an avid skier and boater. Each summer he explores Georgian Bay on his boat for weeks at a time- but only when the hay is cut and in the barn.

Chuck is always happy to share his horse knowledge, humor, or a good bottle of wine with his friends and family. I'm sure glad to be one of his friends.
