EXCA

December 12, 2025 was a sad day for his family, his friends and members of the horse community. Chuck Ornstein passed away surrounded by his family after a brief illness.

He was a cowboy to the end. He was riding his horse Shinner in October - doing spins, playing tag with his granddaughter on Missy and coaching Allysa on Willow.

He will be remembered through the memories he created and the knowledge he shared with anyone who was lucky enough to cross his path.

Chuck was a horseman all his life and enjoyed many facets of the equestrian world. He and his late wife, Linda, built a beautiful home and equestrian facility in Collingwood for their 2 daughters and many quarter horses. Chuck shared his love of horses with his family, friends and boarders.

He was a founding member of EXCA in Ontario and a certified judge. He was recognized for his fairness and consistency in judging. He was an accomplished skier and instructor at Osler Bluffs Ski Club. He also enjoyed boating and fishing on Georgian Bay.

He did everything to the fullest - especially being a friend. Let's all be thankful for the time we got to spend with such a great cowboy- even if it was too short.
