November 2018

Welcome to the Extreme Cowboy Association

As we wrap up the 2018 show season, we are thrilled with the many fun filled and exciting Extreme Cowboy Racing events that were held all over the world. The formation of EXCA has been a thrilling and challenging adventure! Many people have worked tirelessly to create an association that you will be proud to tell your friends about.

This is the latest issue of your monthly newsletter, The Brave Horse.

You will receive it each month electronically around the middle of the month. The Brave Horse will be full of interesting stories, EXCA event results, point standings, human interest stories about EXCA members and Tips and Tales from our founder, Craig Cameron. We encourage you to communicate your suggestions for stories and ideas that will make The Brave Horse fun, better and more informative. The Brave Horse: the best newsletter in the equine world.

TW Saddlery EXCA World Championship Was A Huge Success!

The 2018 EXCA World Championships was held at the Somervell Expo Center in Glen Rose, Texas, November 6 - 11, 2018. Over 240 entries competed in 10 divisions over the first four days, with the top 10 in each coming back for "Super Sunday". The courses were fast and challenging, the competition was tough and the EXCA had a great family reunion! Announcers Craig Cameron and Joel Mobley kept the crowd entertained. Chris Redden put together amazing courses, Beth Sandness, Dee Ladd and Dalene Cameron kept the office running smoothly and Pris Gardner found just the right music for every rider. Thanks to all the judges and volunteers who made this event happen.....there were just too many to list!

International Advisory Panel (IAP)

EXCA is seeking members for the International Advisory Panel. Please contact Frank Turben if you are interested in serving.

The International Advisory Panel (The IAP) is “The Official Voice of the Extreme Cowboy Association Members”

The primary purpose of the Extreme Cowboy Association is to oversee and administer the sport of Extreme Cowboy Racing for all EXCA members.

The EXCA Board of Directors understands for this to be effective, we must establish an easy way to dialogue with EXCA Members throughout the United States and abroad. To facilitate this, the EXCA Board of Directors created an International Advisory Panel, with a minimum of at least one IAP representative in each of the regions across the United States and countries abroad.

The IAP is charged to do the following:

- Establish an easy and effective way for every EXCA member to freely communicate ideas, opinions or complaints on the sport of Extreme Cowboy Racing.
- Establish a way for all EXCA members input to be seriously heard and considered by all members of the IAP and the EXCA Board of Directors.
- Make certain that EXCA member's input is responded to, or acted upon, by either the IAP or the EXCA Board of Directors

Each IAP representative must:

- Be a current member in the EXCA.
- Be appointed by the EXCA Board of Directors
- Be committed to fulfill the following responsibilities:
 - * To communicate at least monthly with each Club representative in their region or country.
 - * To know and understand current EXCA rules.
 - * To make sure all sanctioned EXCA Events in their region or country follow EXCA rules.
 - * To attend as many EXCA sanctioned events in their region or country as possible.

- * To assist the startup efforts of new EXCA Clubs within their region or country.
- * To communicate their Region news and concerns to the EXCA office in a timely manner.
