WORLD SHOW SYMPOSIUM FOR CURRENT JUDGES Cost: $20 Pre-pay Online

Attention all EXCA Judges attending this year's World Show: you are invited to attend this learning opportunity designed just for you. Pete Fraser, the EXCA's Director of Judges and Judging, promises a very focused 2-hour session full of information, appropriate direction, updates, problem solving, strategies and answers to your specific "moments of truth" questions - all targeted on assuring our competitors a strong core of judging options.

Attendance will be a valuable investment of time for any EXCA Judge - regardless of current level and/or experience.

General outline of topics to be covered:

- Specific rules, interpretations, exceptions - the ones that our competitors most complain about consistency and fairness
- Ensuring an accurate, appropriately comparable and fair “reporting of the news” through the judges’ obstacle scores
- Working with your judging partners and scribes - maximizing success and agreement
- When judges disagree (there is no such thing as “the senior judge” breaking the tie)
- Bad habits to rid yourself of - next obstacle hangover; opting for comfort overview; reading belt buckles; “my show, my rules”; Santa Clause scores
- Accepting the parameters of your authority and responsibilities
- Strategies for managing challenging situations/competitors/sideline judges
- Using specific word descriptors to bring meaning and consistency to the numerical scores they are meant to reflect
- Best practices and obligations for conducting the walkthroughs
- The pros and cons of tweaking obstacles during walkthroughs
- The all-important horsemanship score
- Notes if you chose, but they better be very meaningful and
- Balancing degree of difficulty and minor errors
- Tack and apparel issues
- Best practices, meaningful scores, positive experiences for our valued exhibitors, how to get better/not stale
- Lots of time for “what should I have done” case studies

We know this is a very busy time for you. We will try very hard to stay within the 2 hours we are asking of your time and attention. We will also commit to continuing informal discussions afterwards with any individuals that have additional or private questions.

IN ADDITION, attendees at this special Judges Symposium will be given priority for time slots IF they chose to participate in Shadow Judging opportunities at the Show. The shadow judging program offers an opportunity to work in the arena with Pete Fraser - testing your scores, learning on the go, and putting your knowledge and skills to the test in a live World Show setting. At minimum you’ll learn where you stand or what you might need to concentrate on or “tweak” (even the best and most experienced judges can often benefit from structured tweak); at maximum you can use it as an important opportunity to show you are ready to be considered for a move to a higher level and/or consideration/recommendation for bigger shows. Some longer sessions may be offered, but in most cases a session consists of 25-30 runs. Prospective judges may also be offered available opportunities. Generally, 1-3 shadow judges are assigned to a session ...depending on individual preference.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Susan & André van Dommelen
Kranenburg, Germany

Susan and André van Dommelen are large supporters of EXCA hosting (as well as competing in) races at their home, Border Ranch. André is now a Level 1 judge and Susan provides obstacle clinics for their races. Border Ranch is perfectly situated on the Germany-Netherlands border! Susan competes on her 8-year-old homebred Brady Chex offspring, Sonny. André is in the arena on his homebred Commander Flit Fritz offspring, Dutch.

Susan's horse career began with Dressage, but after seeing a show by the trick-team "The Future Guys" thirty years ago, she signed up for a western riding lesson with Rieky Young. She was immediately hooked. Some time later she bought a 6-year-old thoroughbred mare who had been started and ridden in the western discipline. And a few years later, she bought Pepper, a "Peppy San" foal from the Burgmeijer Quarter Horses' Stallion Show. "I rode cowhorse with Pepper for a long time," Susan says. "She's 26 now, she's still with us."

André's riding career began 20 years ago with a 5-year-old QH mare. At the time André was still getting the hang of horseback riding, but he didn't want to ride laps in the arena, so he began cutting lessons. André and Susan soon started going to team penning competitions together. They later made the switch to working cowhorse.

Susan and André started in Extreme Cowboy Racing 3 years ago. They compete at the EXCA of Western Europe and BEXCA, the two Extreme Cowboy Race associations in Belgium. Susan has been a KNHS western instructor for 10 years and also gives a clinic every month in the Extreme Cowboy Race at their home!

- André retired from the Dutch Army this year and that was celebrated at the Border Ranch at the end of May and as a present received a trip to Texas for 18 days during the 2024 EXCA World Finals!
- They want to come again to Texas and compete at the finals in 2026!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Kirsten New Jordan
South Carolina, USA

Fun
FACTS

- South Carolina native lives on five generation farm.
- Loves God and her family!
- In 2018 she bought a colt with the money she saved from her mustang competitions. In 2023 at the American Ranch Horse Association, Kirsten and Shiny won the Reserve World Ranch Reining Championship in Ocala, FL.
- While Kirsten's love for horses remains steadfast and EXCA continues to grow, she dreams of starting a club on the east coast one day!
- Kirsten is the Horry County Young Farmer and Rancher Chairman for SC Farm Bureau and the Alternate SC State Director.
- She enjoys painting, drawing and singing!
- Owens a dog grooming business.
- Kirsten was an editor/writer for the Southeast Equine Magazine.
- She is a social media and digital creator for Southern Detour Boutique.

Kirsten has been a cowgirl her entire life! Being born into generations of horse lovers, her love for them grew quickly. She was buddy riding before she could walk. Snickers, the naughty backyard pony, taught her how to be "sticky". While riding has always been her favorite pastime, she was always coming up with obstacles and adventures for herself and her friends to try. Growing up, she enjoyed trail riding, team penning and sorting with her parents. Cowboys for Christ Rodeos and 4H were never missed.

Kirsten has shown in the Southern Stockhorse Association and Hunter Jumper shows winning championships.

In 2013 Kirsten competed in for the Mustang Million. She has trained seven wild mustangs and competed at the Extreme Mustang Makeovers with five of them, winning three championships. She has been invited multiple times to do demos with her mustangs and was invited to the Stock Show in Fort Worth for the Mustang Magic event.

While watching many great horsemen growing up, she has been fortunate to attend clinics and ride with many of her favorites: Craig Cameron, Cole Cameron, Tom Hagwood, Jimmy Anderson, Martin Black, Dan James, Ken McNabb, Lanny Leach, Lee Hart, Guy McLean, Trevor Carter and Joel Mobley.

Kirsten met Joel Mobley in 2016, he encouraged her to show in EXCA and told her she would be a champion one day. He mentored her in this exciting sport and she has loved it ever since! Her horses have been fortunate enough to win many classes and championships. In 2022 Oakley and Kirsten won the Overall High Point Championship at EXCA World Finals, which she is most proud of!

NOTE - CLARIFICATION ABOUT POINTS AND ADMINISTRATION FEES

We would like to clarify the concept of "paying for points" or "riding for points". According to the EXCA rulebook, there is no such practice.

Per the EXCA rulebook, an EXCA-affiliated club must pay an administration fee for each entry at an EXCA-sanctioned race. Specifically, "EXCA shall receive a $10.00 per entry administration fee." For international races, EXCA charges $5 per entry.

Additionally, please note the following rules:

- All sanctioned EXCA events in the US must have a minimum of 10 current EXCA members.
- All international events must have a minimum of 5 current EXCA members to be sanctioned.

Please keep these rules in mind for future reference.
